- III. PUBLIC COMMENTS –

IV. REGULATION WORKSHOP – Chair, Margaret McConnell commented that the Board was appointed by the Governor to protect the public, a mission that this Board takes seriously. The Board then took comments regarding NAC 654.210(2)(g)(h) and (i) as follows:

1. Camille Cleveland, Attorney for a Place for Mom came to the workshop to discuss NAC 654.210(2)(g)(h) and (i) which prohibits administrators from paying for referrals. Ms. Cleveland stated that A Place for Mom is a placement referral service, however, in Nevada they work under a marketing subscription fee. She also stated that A Place for Mom was working with HCQC to become a licensed referral agency in Nevada. Ms. Cleveland reported that A Place for Mom would like NAC 654.210 amended so that they could operate in Nevada under their standard operating model. Mary Ellen Wilkinson asked Ms. Cleveland regarding the qualifications of their placement specialists. She stated that they go through a training program provided by A Place for Mom, but that there are no medical requirements. Chair, Margaret McConnell, read part of a letter sent to the Department of Health by A Place for Mom which stated that participating facilities under the Marketing Agreement are required to pay an annual fee for referrals. Ms. Cleveland replied that it was not a referral fee since there was no payment per referral. Ms. McConnell then stated that Minnesota has passed a law that prohibits all referral fees since they are considered a kick back that violates Federal Medicaid and Medicare laws. Ms. Cleveland informed the Board that in 2013 A Place for Mom changed its model to private pay only. She stated that it was illegal to pay a referral fee for a public pay resident. Mary Ellen Wilkinson asked Ms. Cleveland what happens if A Place for Mom does not have a participating facility that meets the needs of a resident.
2. Theresa Brushfield, Administrator, spoke to the Board requesting that the regulations remain as they are.
3. Wendy Simons, Administrator and former Bureau Chief of HCQC, relayed a story about the placement of her brother-in-law by A Place for Mom. She stated that the placement failed within 30 days and then discussed the ramifications including additional costs.
4. Douglas Sinclair, Administrator and Group Home Owner, read a letter that he wrote to the Board in which he reminded the Board why the regulation was drafted and urged the Board not to amend its regulations to allow for the payment of referral fees which he feels will result in biased and inappropriate placements.
5. Marla McDade Williams, former Bureau Chief of the Department of Public and Behavioral Health, spoke on behalf of A Place for Mom. She asked the Board that if the State Board of Health supports A Place for Mom's application, does it still want to continue to place its administrators in a conflicted position between the facility and the Board. She asked the Board that administrators not be disciplined if he or she allows referrals with a licensed referral agency.
6. Shawn McGivney, Administrator, echoed the concerns express by Douglas Sinclair. He voiced his concern regarding the qualifications of their placement agents. Mr. McGivney also addressed the issue that these placement agents were not locals of the community. Mr. McGivney requested that the Board not change its regulations.
7. Chair, Margaret McConnell, read a statement submitted by Heather Korbolic, formerly the Nevada State Long Term Care Ombudsman. Ms. Korbolic feels that granting a variance allowing referral fees would limit the consumer's ability to have informed choice and does not insure appropriate placement. Also she felt that only licensed professionals should be allowed to provide placements.

The Board then reviewed the following regulations. Item highlighted in blue were agreed upon. Items in red will be addressed again at the next workshop.
